Open Discussion for Local Residents to Raise Local Issues

The dogs at Lower Foxhall Farm was brought up by one parishioner, and Cllr Barry Durkin confirmed that the matter was still with Herefordshire Council legal team. He also confirmed once again that the RSPCA were happy with the conditions the dogs are kept in. And also suggested everyone effected by the noise pollution, keep a record for Environmental Health. One parishioner who had already been in touch with Environmental Health reported that they were very dismissive of the matter. It was suggested to put a note on the website for all parishioners effected to contact the council

Some of the parishioners were still concerned re the parking at 'The Pound'. The Clerk confirmed that a letter had been sent with no response. A letter suggesting legal action, and some posts in the ground was suggested

One parishioner questioned the lighting at Pomona Grove, and Cllr Durkin confirmed that he would be happy to support a a Parish Councillor on this matter. Cllr Keith Cornwall confirmed that he would move forward with the matter to try and get the lighting reduced

Some of the parishioners complained about the lack of progress with the NDP, and the Cllrs confirmed that this was still under review

One of the parishioners wanted to discuss fossil fuels, the climate emergency, and the new extraction rebellion. This parishioner also suggested holding a meeting with the support of the Parish Council to raise awareness. The Parish Council supported this idea
